Le Rythme

Journal of Music and Movement

Pour acheter ce document, rendez-vous sur
https://www.dalcroze.ch/informations-pratiques/centre-documentation/librairie/

Eurhythmic Futures

Between Reflection and Renewal

fier

EDITION 2026

Contents

Postcard from Practice
Rediscovering My First Copy of Le Rythme
Joan Pope
p. 11

Original Research Article
The Dalcroze Classics 40 Years On:
Reflections on Practice and Collaboration John Habron-James, Selma Landen Odom, Sandra Nash
p. 21

Postcard from Practice
Pages from My Hellerau Diary
Christine Straumer
p. 35

Original Research Article
On the Possible Influence of Mathis Lussy's and Hugo Riemann's Theories of Rhythm on Émile Jaques-Dalcroze's Conception of Music as Movement Maria Hector
p. 45

Postcard from Practice
Using Movement and Cooperative Learning to Satisfy the Diverse Needs of Music Theory Students Catrien Wentink
p. 59

Original Research Article
'I Feel Like a Whole Musician':
Experiences of Dalcroze Teachers Using Their Non-Piano Primary Instrument in Dalcroze Training and Teaching Katherine Smith
p. 67

Postcard from Practice
A Meeting of Minds:
Pedagogical Resonances Between Two Colleagues
Bethan Habron-James, C. Fabian Bautz
p. 85

Original Research Article
A Theoretical Framework Explaining How a Dalcroze-Inspired Approach Promotes Social Cohesion
Joy Meyer
p. 93

Postcard from Practice
Fantastic Fairy Tales: A Dalcroze Reflection on an Interactive Performance for Children and Audiences with Special Education Needs
Emma Dixon
p. 113

Original Research Article
From Conflict to Co-Creation: Aesthetic Transformation as Peacemaking Marek J. P. Zink
p. 123

Postcard from Practice
Plastique Animée and Sacred Music: A Reflection on Choreography for Henryk Górecki's Amen for Mixed Choir
Barbara Dutkiewicz
p. 139

Original Research Article
A Pedagogy for the Invisible: Applications of Jaques-Dalcroze Philosophies and Practices to the Design Fields Stephen Neely
p. 149

Book Review
Navigating Landscapes of Dalcroze Practice: Histories of Music and Movement David Buley
p. 165

Index
p. 167